September 7th, 1917.

Mr. Delmont L. Angell,
475 Cass Street,
Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Mr. Angell:-

Your letter with copy at hand, and I want to thank you for the trouble you have gone to, and also congratulate you on the way you covered the Convention. You have done it so completely that there is nothing that I can add or subtract. I have sent this off to Duffield without any changes, and have also given him a few random shots of my own, which will be entirely separate from your account.

Although my address may appear somewhat indefinite, my mail gets to me O. K.

Like you, I trust that we will meet again both at some future conventions and also at some common meeting ground, and although I can not see my way clear to making a trip west in the immediate future, I trust that if ever you come east you will look me up, and I can assureyou of a warm welcome.

Yours very truly,
